

Criminologists
WITHOUT BORDERS

Welcome to the Winter 2021 Newsletter! Criminologists without Borders wants to update you on its doings this past fall and upcoming spring.

This past December, President Jay Albanese created a video based on his article. "Countering Transnational Crime and Corruption: The Urge to Action Versus the Patience to Evaluate" (Justice Evaluation Journal, 1(1), 82-95). This video was shown at the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice's 29th (reconvened) session in December, 2020. You can see the video here: www.criminologistswithoutborders.org/news OR here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SA6pb6p_ugU&feature=youtu.be.
Albanese is now a Vice-Chair of the Alliance of NGOs on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (<https://crimealliance.org>)

THE Alliance OF NGOs ON CRIME PREVENTION & CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Criminologists without Borders will be co-sponsoring a session at the upcoming 65th session of the UN Commission on the Status of Women entitled, Feminist Approaches to Justice: International Responses to Sexual Violence. Anyone can attend this session (and all the sessions sponsored by NGOs) but you must register first as an 'advocate' (it's free): <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ngo-csw65-forum-advocate-registration-tickets-137312871495>

We note with dismay that the upcoming UN 52nd Statistical Commission has virtually no mention of crime stats!

Criminologists without Borders will be represented at the UN Crime Congress in Kyoto, Japan. An ancillary session was co-sponsored with the American Society of Criminology called, “Data Collection & Analysis in Serbia, Japan and Korea.” See all the sessions here: [www.moj.go.jp/KYOTOCONGRESS2020/en/](http://www.un-congress.org/Session>List. The plenary sessions of the UN Crime Congress (involving Member States) will be webcast in real time in open access. The link should be available soon via the UNODC website. Another link to some sessions will be <a href=)
